

Nomen est mihī: _____

Practice Key for Review Module: Infinitives, Part I

Directions: Translate the following sentences into grammatically correct English.

1. Caesar cum Marcō nōn ire vult.

Caesar doesn't want to go with Marcus.

2. Necessē est tibī verba poētārum legere.

It is necessary for you to read the words of the poets.

3. Servus dominō respondere nōn potest.

The slave is not able to answer (his) master.

4. Miles ferrum habet, sed aurum habere optat.

The soldier has iron, but wishes to have gold.

5. Sapientiam poētārum animō cōgitare dēbēs.

You ought to consider the wisdom of the poets in (your) mind.

6. Fīlium expectare oportet dum redeat pater.

It is fitting for a son to wait until (his) father comes back.

7. Nōnne licēbit Caesarī dē hīs rebus sententiam dīcere?

Will it not be allowed for Caesar to speak his opinion about these affairs?

8. Ducēs malī ē bonīs capere cupiebant.

Evil leaders used to desire to take from good (leaders).

9. Oppida in īnsulā videre poteris.

You will be able to see towns on the island.

Directions: Identify which infinitival function is used in each sentence.

1. Objective
2. Subjective
3. Complementary
4. Objective
5. Complementary
6. Subjective
7. Subjective
8. Objective
9. Complementary