

Nomen est mihi: _____

Practice Key for Review Module: Infinitives, Part II

Directions: Translate the following sentences into grammatically correct English.

1. Nōvistīne trēs lēgātōs ad prōvinciam mittī?

Did you know that three legates were sent to the province?

2. Audiēbam trēs lēgātōs ad prōvinciam missōs esse.

I kept hearing that three legates had been sent to the province.

3. Caesar dīxit sē trēs lēgātōs in prōvinciam missūrum esse.

Caesar said that he would send three legates into the province.

4. Mīles fatētur esse magnum sibi Caesaris metum.

The soldier says that he has a great fear of Caesar.

5. Mīles fassus est magnum esse metum Caesaris.

The soldier said that he had a great fear of Caesaris.

6. Quīdam sentīebant illōs tibi ex urbe pellendōs esse.

Certain people were of the opinion that those people should be expelled from the city by you.

7. Vīdī ipse illōs ā tē ex urbe pellī.

I myself saw those people expelled from the city by you.

8. Nōbīs relātum est senātum illōs ex urbe pulsūrum.

It was related to us that the senate would force those people from the city.

9. Caesar dīcitur ā suīs amārī.

Caesar is said to be loved by his men.

10. Dictum est Caesarem ā suīs amārī.

It is said that Caesar is loved by his men.